

University of Wyoming-
American Heritage Center

Guide to the

Seth Bullock Diaries

Accession # 1978

1978

Seth Bullock (1849-1919)

Diary, 1872

1 item

Diaries and personal histories

National parks and reserves

Voyages and travels

Wyoming history, to 1889

Seth Bullock served as sheriff of Lewis and Clark County, Montana, during the mid 1870s and was later a rancher near Deadwood, South Dakota.

Collection contains a thirty-two page diary kept by Bullock of his trip from Helena, Montana, to Yellowstone National Park from August 23 to September 20, 1872. The diary contains notes and hand-drawn maps regarding Bullock's camps in Yellowstone.

photocopy