

University of Wyoming-
American Heritage Center

Guide to the

Heller Corporation Collection

Accession # 3546

Acc # 3540

April 20, 1971

COPY

THE HELLER CORPORATION COLLECTION

RECEIPT for the gift received of Mr. Hugh Heller:

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS:

"THE HELLERS...SINGERS...PLAYERS...SWINGERS...& DOERS", Stereo, Command Records ABC, produced by Hugh Heller and arranged and conducted by Dick Hamilton.

"JOHNNY SPOTS-PRIVATE EAR", hf, one side stereo and one side mono, produced by Hugh Heller, music composed and arranged by Allyn Ferguson, and Marty Paich. Lyrics and special material by Jacques Wilson. (for promotional use only)

"RADIO CODE SBBScriber SPOTS", for exclusive use by NAB Radio Code sb subscribers.

"AIR", the original Off-Broadway 33 1/3 musical revolution of WNBC

Packet of 3 recordings:

- 1. CREATIVE FREAKOUT, advertising protest songs, Heller Corp.
- 2. BRIEF BOUNCERS, the Hellers Singers...Talkers...Players
- 3. CITY SONGS, The Hellers Singers...Talkers...Players.

TAPES

Date: August 26, 1970
Speed: 7 1/2
Program: "Commercial Demo"
Artists: The Hellers (Singers, Talkers, Players)
Cuts: 15

Date: August 26, 1970
Speed: 7 1/2
Program: KFI
Artists: The Hellers (Singers, Talkers, Players)
Title: "Can A Pussycat Over 35?"

*Wrapped & placed with Carl.
(too large for box)
Box #1*

Tapes, continued:

Box #1
Notes
Date: October 22, 1970
Speed: 7½
Program: "Welcome to the Country"
Artists: The Hellers
Cuts: 15

Date: October 30, 1970
Speed: 7½
Program: KSD Presentation
Artists: The Hellers
Title: "The Afternoon Man vs. The Establishment"

MISCELLANEOUS:

(B-H 367h)
Magazine: SAN FRANCISCO, December 1961. It contains an article about Hugh Heller, "The Man Behind the Sound of the City", by Joan LaFonaine

Brochure: "A Plug for the Well-Turned Phrase", (The Heller Story)

Newsclipping: (reprint) "Hollywood Company Creates Station 'Idents'" by Raymond P. Hart, from the PLAIN DEALER, (Ohio's Largest Newspaper)

(Signed) _____

Gene M. Gressley,
Director

GMG/ees