

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING

Traveling Exhibits

Rural Images

“I know it’s crazy but I can’t stop worrying about the drought.”

The Cartoon Art of J. R. Williams, Ace Reid, and Jerry Palen. Taken together, the works of these three artists offer an insightful, sometimes humorous, always poignant look into American agricultural life during the 20th Century.

Size: 44 framed items (3 crates).

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING
American Heritage Center

The American Heritage Center (AHC) is the University of Wyoming's repository of manuscripts and special collections, rare books, and the university archives. Its collections focus on Wyoming and the Rocky Mountain West (including but not limited to politics, settlement, and western trails), environment and conservation, the mining and petroleum industries, air and rail transportation, the performing arts (particularly radio, television, film, and popular music), journalism, and US military history.

Students and scholars from around the globe use these collections for research. The AHC also sponsors a wide range of scholarly and popular programs including lectures, concerts, symposia, and exhibits. Housed in a landmark building shared with the University Art Museum, access to the AHC is free

Mailing Address:

1000 E. University Ave., Dept. 3924
Laramie, WY 82071

Location:

2111 Willett Drive (Centennial Complex)
307.766.4114 / 307.766.5511 (FAX)

E-mail and Web Site:

ahc@uwyo.edu (General)
ahceref@uwyo.edu (Reference Dept.)
<http://www.uwyo.edu/ahc>

Director: Mark Greene, 307.766.2474

Associate Director: Rick Ewig, 307.766.6385

Traveling Exhibits: Mary Ann Meyer, 307.766.2573

First National Bank
of Wyoming
*Service you deserve,
Wyoming style!*

American Heritage Center

The American Heritage Center gratefully acknowledges the generous support of First National Bank of Wyoming for its Exhibits program.